LINEMEN STRIKE.
Not only the regular linemen and inside men of the Southern Bell in Norfolk are out, but also men employed in the new construction work, and everything is dead. Only new men are at work, and the strikers are using every effort to get these out. In all there are some over seventy-five men out in Norfolk. The few men left at work here were sent out to-day to do only inside repair work, the company not undertaking any outside work whatever. The strikers say that a few non-union men may be found to take the places of the strikers at various points, but that a sufficient number of reliable men cannot be found to take their places, and that they expect nothing but early yielding to their demands. They expect soon to return to work.

MAN MISSING.
Relatives and friends of R. O. Askew, a farmer, who is employed by H. H. Harrell on Broad Creek, are alarmed to-day over his failure to return home last night. He lives with his wife and one child on Mr. Harrell's farm. He went to Portsmouth Sunday morning to visit relatives, saying he would return Sunday night, but he failed to return. Relatives, friends and the police were communicated with this morning in an effort to locate the man. He has never before remained away from home over night under these conditions. Askew is twenty-eight years old.

WILD WITH ITCHING HUMOR

Eruption Broke Out in Spots All Over Body—Caused a Continual Itching for Two Years—Doctor's Medicine Did no Good—Cured at Expense of only $1.25 and Now

THANKS CUTICURA FOR COMPLETE CURE

"Some time ago I wrote you for a book on the Cuticura Remedies and received it O. K. and went and bought the Soap, Ointment, and Pills. They did me more good than any medicine I ever used. They cured me of my skin disease, and I am very thankful to you. My trouble was eruption of the skin, which broke out in spots all over my body, and caused a continual itching which nearly drove me wild at times. I got medicine of a doctor, but it did not cure me, and when I saw in a paper your ad., I sent you for the Cuticura Soap and I studied my case in it. I then went to the drug store and bought one cake of Cuticura Soap, one box of Cuticura Ointment, and one vial of Cuticura Pills. From the first application I received relief. I used the first set and two extra cakes of Cuticura Soap, and was completely cured. I had suffered for two years, and I again thank Cuticura for my cure. If you wish, you may publish this. Your friend forever, Claude N. Johnson, Maple Grove Farm, R. F. D. 2, Walnut Kan., June 15, 1905."

LIVELY EASTER IN PETERSBURG

The Riverside Country Club Entertains With Open House All Day.

DANCING AND BASEBALL

Petersburg Veterans Going to New Orleans By the Norfolk and Western.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) PETERSBURG, VA., April 16.—Excursions, picnics, fishing parties and a general good time have been the order of the day here on this Easter Monday with every one whose occupation allowed a holiday at a season that is rivaling Christmas as a popular time of the year. The Riverside Country Club was the center of social attraction in the afternoon and evening, the Hampton-Sidney baseball team's eleven-inning game with the club being the star feature of the afternoon, the club finally prevailing in a hard earned victory by a score of seven to six. The club house was aglow with Easter gayeties all the evening, a largely attended informal dance being the main attraction.

For monuments over the graves of American sailors buried in a foreign land a Petersburg firm to-day received shipment in a complimentary letter from Quartermaster-Sergeant (Howell) Cobb, of the United States Marine Corps. The monuments were erected over the graves of Sergeant Charles Hastings, of the Marine Corps, and Raphael Cohen, United States navy, and are the work of the C. M. Walsh Marble Works.

A large party of Confederate veterans, accompanied by a number of Sons of Veterans and several ladies, will leave for New Orleans in a special Pullman car next Sunday night to attend the big Confederate reunion. The party will go via the Norfolk and Western.

More than two thousand children were present at the Methodist Sunday schools yesterday, but because of threatening weather no school reached the desired mark in number of Easter Sunday scholars. Reports at the Sunday School Association meeting at High Street Church in Richmond showed a total register of 2,375 for the past month, with an actual attendance of 1,614 at the eight schools.

A. P. Hill Camp heard a special sermon at the Second Presbyterian Church last evening by Rev. W. McC. White, pastor of the church.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) BUENA VISTA, VA., April 16.—The safe for the People's Bank, which was organized here some weeks ago, was unloaded from the car and put in place yesterday. Invitations have been issued for a social at the Southern Seminary for to-morrow night, which the young ladies and faculty are working to make a great success.

Mr. R. H. Willis and Mr. W. G. Tyler returned last night from Lexington, where they have been all week engaged in the defense of J. This is the third trial, and resulted in a verdict of involuntary manslaughter, with a fine of $50 dollars. The case has been hotly contested throughout.

Commonwealth attorney being assisted by Messrs. Glasgow and White, and the two former trials having both resulted in hung juries.

The April term of the Buena Vista Corporation Court begins here a week from Monday, with Judge Holt, of Albemarle, presiding. The court will be held in the Buena Vista Hotel. The corporation was declared a first-class city recently. The Constitution, prohibiting the judge of a first-class city to hold the office of judge in more than one city, Judge Holt was accordingly appointed to hold one more term and then retire. It is certain matters that he has in hand. In the meantime, the Governor will appoint a judge until court meets.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) AMHERST, VA., April 16.—Judge John M. White, of Albemarle county, opened his last term of court, perhaps in Amherst county this morning. Amherst has been transferred from the Eighth to the Twenty-ninth Circuit, and Judge Gordon, of Nelson county, will hold next court in June.

Marshall Jones was to-day tried for the shooting of M. B. Kyle, of Allen's Creek, in March of last year, and fined $25. A special grand jury to-day indicted H. O. Fulcher for the murder of Jim Jones, and also Berry Aleock for the attempt at criminal assault. The Fulcher case has been set for Wednesday, and a great deal of interest is being manifested in it. Messrs. Leach and Howard, of Lynchburg, are assisting with Mr. T. C. Payne, of Amherst, in the defense of Fulcher. License to distill whiskey was granted H. C. Loving, of Lowesville.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) WINCHESTER, VA., April 16.—Further developments came to light to-day in the swindling done in this section by an alleged lightning-rod man. J. D. Snapp, of Middletown, agreed, as he thought to pay $12 for a job of rods, but when the men came to put them up, they produced a paper in which he was made to agree to pay $317. The men compromised with Snapp for $30 in cash and a note for $150. The authorities are after the swindlers, who are said to have gone further up the valley.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NORFOLK, VA., April 16.—While Greencrook's woodyard, in the suburbs, burned Saturday night, members of the white and colored fire companies of "Huntersville" fought a pitched battle among themselves for the honor of dousing the flames.

WALLEN CASE TO THE JURY TO-DAY

All the Testimony is Now in and Bitterly Contested Suit is Partially Argued

HAD EYE ON HIS PROPERTY

Letter Produced Showing How Old Man Viewed Marriage.

The Chancery Court wrestled again yesterday with the Wallen case. Wallen will come to trial in all likelihood to-day. The jury this afternoon. But a little while was consumed at the morning session with the completion of the testimony, and then the argument was gone into. Mr. Robert N. Pollard, of the firm of Pollard and Pollard, counsel for the defendant, opened the case in a strong speech, and he was followed by Hon. C. W. Throckmorton, for the plaintiff. Mr. Throckmorton's argument consumed a great deal of time, and he reviewed the evidence in an able manner.

Judge A. L. Holladay will follow on the same side this morning, and Hon. H. R. Pollard will close the case for Mrs. Wallen.

The amount involved is about $35,000, and the seven children of the late James Wallen by former marriages are seeking to upset the papers conveying property to this amount to his third wife, the defendant in the case.

Wise to Woman's Ways.

The following interesting letter, written by Mr. Wallen to one of his daughters, has been produced:

"Perhaps I will marry again; if I do, I will let you know. I think that when a person takes that step he ought to be very careful and watch their points and see whether they love him or his money. That is the programme. I am working on now. If it is money they are after, I will find out, as I shall control what I have by having a marriage contract drawn up in a legal form, and that will give me the same power over my property as I have now."

"If the party will not sign it, then I will know how the cat jumps and I will stay as I am."

"That is the only way you can find out these women. They say they love you, but you don't know. They have to be tested, and I am going to do it. I think when I tell her that she will think a cyclone has struck her."
